

The Skillful Leader III

Strengthening Teacher Evaluation

Taking Action to Improve Ineffective Instruction

ALEXANDER D. PLATT ED.D.

CAROLINE E. TRIPP ED.D.

Ready About Press

Distributed by Research for Better Teaching, Inc.

Acton, Massachusetts

Dedicated with love and gratitude to our incomparable life partners Carolyn and Ray for their collective 85 years of sustaining, nourishing, and inspiring us.

The Skillful Leader III Strengthening Teacher Evaluation: Taking Action to Improve Ineffective Instruction
Copyright © 2014 Ready About Press

Distributed exclusively by Research for Better Teaching, Inc.
One Acton Place
Acton, Massachusetts 01720
978-263-9449 Voice
978-263-9959 Fax
www.rbteach.com

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced or transmitted in any manner whatsoever, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying or any information storage and retrieval system without written permission.

To order copies of this book or to request permission to reprint for any purpose, please contact Research for Better Teaching, Inc. See RBT publications listing at the back of this volume.

ISBN 978-1-886822-57-3

Cover and text design: Dean Bornstein
Composition: Dean Bornstein
Production management: Post Publishing Service
Development, copy editing, and indexing: Merry B. Post

CONTENTS

List of Figures	iv
List of Examples	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
About the Authors	x
1 Introduction	3
2 Evaluating for Impact	9
3 Introduction to the Action Cycle	25
4 USING MULTIPLE DATA SOURCES	31
4A Expanding the Sources of Data We Use to Evaluate	33
4B Teaching-Focused Data Sources	37
4C Learning-Focused Data Sources	44
4D Noninstructional Data Sources	55
5 DIAGNOSING PROBLEMS	67
5A Overview	69
5B Diagnosing Problems in Management	74
5C Diagnosing Problems in Instruction	78
5D Diagnosing Problems in Expectations, Personal Relationship Building, and Classroom Climate	83
5E Diagnosing Problems in Planning	87
5F Diagnosing Problems in Assessment	91
5G Diagnosing Problems in Professionalism	95
6 DEFINING AND COMMUNICATING THE PROBLEM	101
6A Overview of Problem Communication	103
6B Communicating Early Worries	108
6C Communicating Concerns	114
6D Developing Formal Problem Descriptions	122
7 DESIGNING INTERVENTIONS	141
7A Overview of Intervention Design	143
7B Making Suggestions	147
7C Influencing Goal Setting	152
7D Developing Accountable Recommendations	159
7E Creating Short-Term MiniPlans sm	170
8 DESIGNING IMPROVEMENT PLANS	177
8A Overview	179
8B Designing and Monitoring an Improvement Plan	185
8C Looking at a Sample Improvement Plan	196
9 Using Progressive Discipline	217
10 Preparing For Dismissal	229
Bibliography	241
Index	242

LIST OF FIGURES

 in the text margin indicates a cross-reference.

Figure 1.1	Confronting the Sources of Mediocrity	6
Figure 2.1	Making the Shift to Learning-Focused Evaluation	13
Figure 2.2	Data Collection in a Learning-Focused Observation	16
Figure 2.3	Tips on Formal Observation for Tenured Faculty	17
Figure 2.4	Tips for Making Teachers partners in Evaluation	22
Figure 3.1	The Action Cycle for Improving Ineffective Teaching	27
Figure 4A.1	Using Data Throughout the Action Cycle	33
Figure 4A.2	Sources of Data	34
Figure 4A.3	How to Organize for a Multiple Data Source Environment	35
Figure 4B.1	Examining Lesson and Unit Plans	38
Figure 4B.2	Examining Homework and Practice Tasks	40
Figure 4B.3	Examining Grading Criteria	41
Figure 4B.4	Examining Wall Data	41
Figure 4C.1	Examining Student Grades and Grade Distributions	45
Figure 4C.2	Examining Progress Reports	46
Figure 4C.3	Examining Formative Assessments	47
Figure 4C.4	Examining Feedback on Student Work	48
Figure 4C.5	Considering the Usefulness of Achievement Data	49
Figure 4C.6	Examining Achievement Data	50
Figure 4C.7	Examining Student Surveys	51
Figure 4C.8	Classroom Interviews Question Bank	52
Figure 4D.1	Examining Professional Growth Plans	56
Figure 4D.2	Examining Observations and Artifacts of Collaboration	58
Figure 4D.3	Examining Attendance Records	59
Figure 4D.4	Examining Arrival and Departure Data	61
Figure 4D.5	Examining Communication Artifacts	62
Figure 4D.6	Examining Student Placement Decisions	63
Figure 4D.7	Examining Discipline Referrals	64
Figure 5A.1	The Diagnostic Step in the Action Cycle	69
Figure 5A.2	Diagnosing Where to Invest Effort	70
Figure 5A.3	Map of Pedagogical Knowledge	72
Figure 5B.1	Sources of Data for Diagnosing Problems with Classroom Management	74
Figure 5B.2	When to Focus on Classroom Management	75
Figure 5B.3	Diagnostic Questions for Management and Discipline	76
Figure 5C.1	Sources of Data for Diagnosing Problems with Instruction	78
Figure 5C.2	When to Focus on Instruction	79
Figure 5C.3	Diagnostic Questions for Clarity	80
Figure 5D.1	Sources of Data for Diagnosing Problems with Motivation or Expectations	83
Figure 5D.2	When to Focus on Motivation (Expectations, Personal Relationship Building, and Class Climate)	84

Figure 5D.3	Questions for Diagnosing Low or Inconsistent Expectations	85
Figure 5D.4	Questions for Diagnosing Issues Involving Personal Relationship Building	86
Figure 5D.5	Questions for Diagnosing Classroom Climate	86
Figure 5E.1	Sources of Data for Diagnosing Problems in Planning	87
Figure 5E.2	When to Focus on Planning	88
Figure 5E.3	Questions for Diagnosing Issues with Planning	89
Figure 5E.4	Planning and Conference Guide	90
Figure 5F.1	Sources of Data for Diagnosing Problems with Classroom Assessment	91
Figure 5F.2	When to Focus on Assessment	92
Figure 5F.3	Diagnostic Questions for Assessment	93
Figure 5G.1	Sources of Data for Diagnosing Problems in Professionalism	96
Figure 5G.2	When to Focus on Professionalism	97
Figure 5G.3	Diagnostic Questions for Professionalism	97
Figure 6A.1	The Defining Phase of the Action Cycle	103
Figure 6A.2	Continuum of Problem Documentation and Description	105
Figure 6B.1	Early Worries on the Continuum of Problem Documentation and Description	108
Figure 6B.2	When to Start with and Early Worry	108
Figure 6B.3	How to Communicate Early Worries	109
Figure 6C.1	Concerns on the Continuum of Problem Documentation and Description	114
Figure 6C.2	When to Start at the Concern Level	114
Figure 6C.3	How to Communicate Concerns	115
Figure 6D.1	Continuum of Problem Documentation and Description	122
Figure 6D.2	When to Use a Formal Problem Description	123
Figure 6D.3	Relationship of Elements in Balanced Analysis	125
Figure 7A.1	The Action Cycle	143
Figure 7A.2	Repertoire of Intervention Approaches after a Problem Has Been Communicated	144
Figure 7A.3	Overview: Levels of Intensity	145
Figure 7B.1	Suggestions in the Repertoire of Intervention Approaches	147
Figure 7B.2	When to Choose the Green Level and Suggestions	147
Figure 7B.3	How to Plan and Carry Out a Green-Level Conference	148
Figure 7C.1	Goal Setting on the Continuum of Intervention Approaches	152
Figure 7C.2	When to Choose the Rose Level and Goal Setting	153
Figure 7C.3	How to Conference with a Teacher about Setting a Goal after a Problem Has Been Identified	154
Figure 7C.4	Traps That Undermine Effective Goal Setting	156
Figure 7C.5	Criteria for Effective SMART Goals	158
Figure 7D.1	Recommendations in the Repertoire of Intervention Approaches	159
Figure 7D.2	When to Start with Recommendations	160
Figure 7D.3	Criteria for Effective Recommendations	160
Figure 7D.4	Examples of Recommendations in Section 7D	161
Figure 7E.1	MiniPlans sm in the Repertoire of Intervention Approaches	170
Figure 7E.2	When to Use a MiniPlan sm	170

Figure 7E.3	MiniPlan sm vs. Formal Improvement Plan	172
Figure 7E.4	Criteria for Effective MiniPlans sm	173
Figure 8A.1	Formal Improvement Plans in the Repertoire of Intervention Approaches	179
Figure 8A.2	When to Choose an Improvement Plan	179
Figure 8A.3	How to Focus the Work of the Assistance Team	183
Figure 8B.1	Decision Points in the Planning Process	187
Figure 8B.2	Overview of Improvement Planning and Monitoring	188
Figure 8B.3	Criteria for Selecting Problems	189
Figure 8B.4	Criteria for High-Quality Goals	189
Figure 8B.5	Criteria for High-Quality Cause Analysis	191
Figure 8B.6	Criteria for High-Quality Strategies and Actions	192
Figure 8B.7	Criteria for Sources of Data to Monitor Strategies	193
Figure 8B.8	Criteria for Evidence of a Teacher’s Progress	193
Figure 8C.1	Overview of Improvement Planning and Monitoring	196
Figure 9.1	When to Use Progressive Discipline	217
Figure 9.2	How to Conduct a First Meeting to Communicate a Concern	220
Figure 9.3	How to Conduct a Second Meeting	221
Figure 9.4	How to Conduct a Third or “Failure to Respond” Meeting	223
Figure 9.5	How to Document Using the Three-Part Memo	223
Figure 10.1	Two Tracks to Dismissal	233
Figure 10.2	Tips for Effective Documentation	236

LIST OF EXAMPLES

Example 6B.1	Management: Students off task	110
Example 6B.2	Purpose for Learning: Lesson objectives not communicated	110
Example 6B.3	Climate: Parent complaints about student discomfort	111
Example 6B.4	Student Performance: Poor results on interim assessments	112
Example 6B.5	Professionalism: Department agreements not implemented	113
Example 6C.1	Instruction: No visuals or explanatory devices	116
Example 6C.2	Expectations: Low expectations for Special Education students	117
Example 6C.3	Planning: Curriculum standards not being used	118
Example 6C.4	Instruction: Purposes for learning not identified or communicated	119
Example 6C.5	Climate: Disrespectful treatment of students	120
Example 6D.1	Classroom Management: Ineffective procedures and routines [observation report]	126
Example 6D.2	Instruction: Ineffective questioning and discussion strategies [interim assessment]	128
Example 6D.3	Assessment: Failure to provide timely and effective feedback [memo of concern]	130
Example 6D.4	Learning Environment: Negative relationships with students [interim evaluation]	131
Example 6D.5	Expectations: Low standards for students [memo of concern]	133
Example 6D.6	Curriculum: Ineffective planning [final evaluation]	135
Example 6D.7	Assessment: Data not collected or used to modify instruction [final evaluation]	137
Example 6D.8	Professional Responsibilities: Poor collaboration [final evaluation]	138
Example 7B.1	Green-Level Intervention Conference That Begins with Desired Student Learning Outcome	148
Example 7B.2	Green-Level Intervention Conference That Begins with the Teacher Performance Standard	150
Example 7C.1	Ineffective Goals	157
Example 7C.2	Revising Ineffective Goals to Make Them SMART	158
Example 7D.1	Recommendation re Increasing Student Engagement in and Ownership for Learning	162
Example 7D.2	Recommendation re Establishing Effective Procedures and Routines	164
Example 7D.3	Recommendation re Assessment/Feedback to Students	165
Example 7D.4	Recommendation re Building Positive Relationships and a Positive Climate for Learning	166
Example 7D.5	Recommendation re Expectations for Student Performance	167
Example 7D.6	Recommendation re Assessment and Planning	168
Example 7D.7	Recommendation re Meeting Professionalism Standards for Collaborative Practice and Shared Responsibility for Students	169

viii List of Examples

Example 7E.1	Excerpt from Whim Winger’s Problem Description	174
Example 7E.2	MiniPlan sm for Whim Winger	175
Example 8C.1	Description of the Problem(s) to be Addressed	198
Example 8C.2	Learning Goals for Sally Friendly	199
Example 8C.3	Strategies and Actions: Self-assessment phase for Sally Friendly	200
Example 8C.4	Data Sources and Evidence of Learning: Self-assessment phase for Sally Friendly	202
Example 8C.5	Strategies and Actions: Guided application and feedback for Sally Friendly	203
Example 8C.6	Data Sources and Evidence for Learning: Guided application phase for Sally Friendly	205
Example 8C.7	Strategies and Actions: Independent application phase for Sally Friendly	206
Example 8C.8	Data Sources and Evidence for Learning: Independent application phase for Sally Friendly	208
Example 8C.9	Sample Improvement Plan for Sally Friendly	210
Example 9.1	First Meeting: Concern re Administrative Policy	220
Example 9.2	Second Meeting: Concern re Administrative Policy	222
Example 9.3	Third Meeting and Written Documentation: Not complying with an administrative policy	224
Example 10.1	A Process for District Calibration Training	232

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Alexander D. Platt, Ed.D.

Alexander (Andy) Platt is a founding and senior consultant with Boston-based consulting firm Research for Better Teaching (RBT). In 2000, while he continued to be affiliated with RBT, he founded Ready About Consulting, dedicated to working with leaders of underperforming schools. He is the lead author of the first two books in the best-selling Skillful Leader series: Confronting Mediocre Teaching and Confronting Conditions That Undermine Learning. He specializes in coaching urban leaders on raising the quality of instruction through supervision and evaluation. Over his 35-year career, he has developed numerous long-term relationships with client districts and has taught courses to over 2,000 administrators in the United States, Europe, and Japan.

Caroline E. Tripp, Ed.D.

Caroline Tripp is also a senior consultant with Research for Better Teaching (RBT). A co-author of the first two books in the Skillful Leader series, she has spent more than 20 years training and supporting district and school-site leaders across the country. She specializes in long-term district development work that includes the design and implementation of supervision and evaluation systems for teachers and administrators, building effective leadership teams at all levels, training evaluators, and supporting the development of new administrators. She has presented nationally on a wide range of topics related to teacher quality and leadership development. Dr. Tripp served as the Director of Curriculum and Training for RBT's 10-year joint project on workplace excellence with the Montgomery County (MD) Public Schools. She was formerly a faculty member of the Boston Principal Fellows Program and Assistant Superintendent of the Shrewsbury, MA, Public Schools.